Extract from the Staff Meeting Minutes of 30 July 1979:

[] said London's Guardian reports a substantial cutback in BBC funding, which poses serious implications on US intelligence needs, e.g., FBIS. The Director said he would be glad to get in touch with the Brits on this to ensure adequate support to U.S. intelligence. It was noted the situation is contrary to previous reports that the Thatcher government would be providing increased resources to intelligence. [] will follow up on exactly what is happening.
